FROM CHAIR OF GOVERNORS

Dear Parents and Carers,

Here we are, your Local Governing Body at our first meeting since the school became an academy on 1st April! We feel the school has a positive and exciting future within All Saints Schools Trust and look forward to working with the Trustees, who are also committed to ensuring that our school thrives as it should.

Our role as a Local Governing Body within a Trust may be slightly different but its essence remains the same: we want to make sure that the school delivers the high standard of education your children deserve and we are also here to listen to your views as parents.

We now have a full complement of nine governors, including two elected parents, Clare Foster-Clarke and Lucy Po paj; parents are welcome to approach any governor; in particular the Chair, but Clare and Lucy are especially well-placed to help you connect with governors and senior staff should you have concerns.

You can read more about the governors on the school website, but we are:

Mary Lewis, Chair	Appointed by the Church
Garry Deeks, Vice-Chair	Appointed by All Saints Schools Trust
Revd Canon Susan Loxton	Appointed by the Church
Prue Rush	Co-opted by governors
Tony Newton	Co-opted by governors
Clare Foster-Clarke	Elected by parents
Lucy Popaj	Elected by parents
Jeremy Leicester	Elected by staff
Mark Taylor	Headteacher

Yours sincerely

Mary Lewis
(Chair of Governors)
