

The Possessive Apostrophe

Apostrophes

We have learnt that an apostrophe can be used to mark where a letter is missing (contraction).

Apostrophes can also be used to show that something belongs to somebody or something (possession). In these words the apostrophe comes after the noun and is followed by 's' to show possession...

The bag that belongs to Rocco

Rocco's bag

Apostrophes

Megan's

Ravi's

the girl's

the child's the man's

the woman's

the school's

a dog's

a teacher's

a postman's

Apostrophes

Can you air write an apostrophe with your finger?

Using your finger
can you write an apostrophe on your cheek?

Apostrophes

Which picture goes with which sentence? Don't forget to add the apostrophe + 's', to show possession.

Ravi's

The man's

Megan's

The school's

A teacher's

The school's lights were still on.

The man's wig blew off in the wind.

Megan's puppy was brown with a red collar.

Ravi's shirt was purple with stars on it.

A teacher's desk is often untidy.

Here are this week's spellings to practise.

Megan's

Ravi's

the girl's

the child's the man's

the woman's

the school's

a dog's

a teacher's

a postman's

Don't forget!

Megan and Ravi are people's names so they both begin with a capital letter.

twinkl