

Poetry - onomatopoeia

Onomatopoeia

CRASH

Onomatopoeia

- Sound words in poems

Bang

has

Thump

Yell

An onomatopoeia is a type of word that sounds like the thing it is describing.

Match the following sentences to the onomatopoeia that describes them. You don't need to record this.

- A plate being dropped on the floor.
- A balloon being burst
- A gun being shot.
- Someone eating crisps.
- A light being switched on.
- A fierce dog.
- A small bell being rung.

- TINKLE
- BANG
- SMASH
- GROWL
- POP
- CRUNCH
- CLICK

An onomatopoeia is a type of word that sounds like the thing it is describing.

- ✓ Put each of the onomatopoeia words into a sentence.
- ✓ Can you think of any more onomatopoeia words? List them.

- TINKLE
- BANG
- SMASH
- GROWL
- POP
- CRUNCH
- CLICK

2.

Can you spot the onomatopoeia words?

- When Carly Eats Spaghetti
- When Carly eats spaghetti,
- She chomps and gobbles and slurps,
- The spaghetti disappears with a whoosh
- Sauce slapping and smacking
- Round her chops.
- She scrapes the toast round the plate
- Crunching, grinding every mouthful.
- She burps, gurgles and leaves the table!