

Art Lesson: Tuesday 9th June

In Art this half-term we are focusing on creating artwork to music.

Today's challenge is to listen to a lively song, my suggestion is Taylor Swift—Shake it off

(If you would prefer a different lively song that's fine)

While listening to it, shut your eyes/put a blindfold on and draw to the music using a pen or pencil. Don't try to draw a particular thing, just let your pencil/pen move to the music.

After listening to it, paint/colour the gaps between the lines.

When you have finished, compare this piece to last week's artwork.

- Are they similar?
- How have the lines you've drawn changed?
- Have you chosen to use different colours to fill in the gaps?
- Have you filled more/less of your paper?
