

Peek at the Week

Friday 10th July

We had a lovely week in Waveney Class. The highlight was our beach fun day and surf yoga. Prior to the event the children made and decorated surfboards, pasta jewellery and flip flops.

On the day the children dressed for the beach and took their surfboards and beach towels out to the field to meet Tess, our surf yoga instructor. We had great fun imagining that we were surfing on the ocean and seeing lots of sea creatures as we went in search of the perfect wave. Tess was very impressed with the children's ability to follow her instructions and use their imaginations.

Our theme story was The Lighthouse Keeper's Lunch by Ronda and David Armitage. We listened to the story and discussed it. We talked about what we would put in a disgusting sandwich and then wrote the sentence. After that we made sandwiches, using a knife to spread the filling and cut it into quarters. Then we ate them (they were delicious, not disgusting!).

We looked at a piece of Folk Art by Maud Lewis and used a variety of materials and techniques to recreate it. We also made models of lighthouses and talked about how we could improve our models.

In maths we have continued to work on addition and subtraction within 20 and number arrays.

We also had great fun doing an experiment with a balloon and a basket on string, timing how long it took the basket to travel along taut and loose strings.

The Nursery children have taken part in lots more beach themed activities this week. First they packed a bag for the beach, counted the items and explained why they chose them. Then they watched a surf yoga video. Then they made up their own yoga poses. You can watch it again here. <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=qMNI6uvT5y8>

They also made a picnic lunch of a sandwich and chopped up fruit.

★ The Star of the Week is Isaac Roome, who has done some fabulous work this week, especially working out arrays in maths. Well done, Isaac!

Our home learning star of the week is Rio Impey, who has done lots of lovely artwork and some writing. Well done, Rio.

Well done everybody – what a fantastic week!
