

Anti-Bullying Week (15th – 19th November 2021)

Thank you and a big well done to all the Anti-Bullying Ambassadors, for organising this. You made an amazing video and held a great Jokes Competition, as well as remembering to remind everyone to wear odd socks on Odd Socks Day.

Here are two of the jokes voted the funniest:

Q. What do you call a pig who does karate?

A. A pork chop!

Q. What's the best way to count cows?

A. With a cowculator!

(A bit of a farming theme going on there. I wonder why?)

Thank you to all teaching staff for your great lessons. We have had really positive feedback from the children about the assemblies and the live lessons.

Children in Congo particularly liked the 'apple' assembly. Look at these two apples. Both look the same from the outside, but do you see how one is damaged and rotten inside? We discussed the fact that we don't know how other people are feeling inside. We agreed, 'Always be kind!'
